Said section had been returned by His Excellency the Governor with his objections thereto in writing [for message, see House, No. 4366] as follows:

"SECTION 3. Chapter 23A of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out section 3H, as so appearing, and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

Section 3H. The secretary of economic development shall appoint the director of the Massachusetts permit regulatory office, who shall have experience with permitting and business development and who shall serve as the ombudsman to new and expanding businesses to provide one-stop licensing for businesses, and development in order to streamline and expedite the process of obtaining state licenses, permits, state certificates, state approvals, state registrations, state charters and other requirements of law. The ombudsman shall communicate with municipal officials responsible for local review procedures to determine the municipal perspective on the proposed project, and to facilitate communication between the municipality and state agencies. The Massachusetts permit regulatory office shall consult with each regional office of the Massachusetts Office of Business Development, in order to better serve local businesses. Each executive office and each of the departments of environmental protection, business and technology, housing and community development, labor, workforce development and consumer affairs and business regulation shall appoint a senior staff member who shall be responsible for coordinating the efforts of the commonwealth to provide one-stop licensing at the state level for businesses and developments in order to streamline and expedite the process of obtaining state licenses, state permits, state certificates, state approvals, state registrations, state charters and other requirements of law. The senior staff members shall meet at least once a month with the ombudsman and shall meet with each other on a regular basis. The secretary of administration and finance shall work with the secretary of economic development, the ombudsman and senior staff members to develop a recommended format for an application form and procedure which shall be used by all executive offices when possible. The ombudsman shall file an annual report with the house and senate committees on ways and means by January 1 of each year on the activities of the Massachusetts permit regulatory office, including legislative recommendations on business development and expansion efforts." Said section had been returned by His Excellency the Governor with his objections thereto in writing [for message, see House, No. 4366] as follows:

"SECTION 62. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, (a) there shall be a council of economic advisors, in this section called the "council", to develop long-term policies to support economic development in the commonwealth. The council shall serve as an advisor to the governor and the general court and shall be administered by the secretary of economic affairs. The council shall consist of equal numbers appointed by the governor, the senate president and the speaker of the house. Members shall include, but not be limited to, representatives from relevant industry sectors, institutions of higher learning, labor organizations, nonprofit organizations, financial institutions, and relevant quasi-public organizations.

(b) At a minimum, the council shall conduct studies and make recommendations relating to policy development in the following areas: e-government and e-commerce, emerging technologies and the labor market for scientists, engineers and science and math educators in the commonwealth. The council shall make recommendations as to how the commonwealth may encourage companies to conduct business within the commonwealth, and shall place an emphasis on promoting greater minority and women involvement in emerging technology sectors.

(c) The council shall establish the following task force and others that it deems to be needed from time to time: a task force on science, math, engineering and technology education to investigate, study and make legislative recommendations on maintaining a specialized workforce to support and expand the science, math, engineering and technology sectors in the commonwealth, preparing students for the demands of a knowledge-based economy of the future and attracting and retaining students entering science, math, engineering and technology fields of study. The task force shall also investigate the public college and university system, including community colleges, to establish job training programs specifically geared toward creating manufacturing, science, math, engineering and technology employment opportunities and to identify and establish career ladders within science, math, engineering and technology employment opportunities. The task force shall also investigate the impact of changing demographics on the state and make recommendations on ways to incorporate such changes in order to enhance the state's capacity to build a strong and competitive workforce. The task force shall include the following members, among others: the commissioner of the department of education or his designee; the director of workforce development, or his designee; a labor economist; a CEO of a life-science firm; a CEO of a technology firm; a CEO of a health care corporation; a representative of a woman-led firm and minority-led firm; the chair of the board of higher education, or his designee; a chancellor of a state university or college; a president of a state college; a president of a community college; a superintendent of a Massachusetts public school system; the executive director of the Massachusetts Technology Collaborative; the executive director of the Massachusetts Development Finance Agency; the President of Associated Industries of Massachusetts; the President of the Massachusetts Federation of Teachers; 3 members of the senate to be appointed by the senate president, 1 of whom shall serve as co-chair and 1 of whom shall be a member of the minority party; and three members of the house of representatives to be appointed by the speaker of the house, 1 of whom shall serve as co-chair and 1 of whom shall be a member of the minority party. The taskforce shall conduct hearings and file a report on the results of its study, along with recommendations and any legislation necessary to carry out its recommendations with the clerks of the house of representatives and the senate, not later than June 1, 2004. The taskforce shall be administered by the Massachusetts Technology Park Corporation, established pursuant to chapter 40J of the General Laws.". Question comes on passing said section, notwithstanding said objections [Rogers-Kujawski.]

Said section had been returned by His Excellency the Governor with His objections thereto in writing [for message, see House, No. 4365] as follows:

"SECTION 116. Notwithstanding any general or special law, rule or regulation to the contrary, the executive office of health and human services, in conjunction with the office of elders services, department of public health, division of medical assistance and division of health care finance and policy shall convene a task force, which shall develop a critical nursing facility capital access plan for the purpose of ensuring necessary physical plant maintenance as an integral part of quality nursing home care. The task force shall also include representatives from the nursing home industry, including from the Massachusetts Extended Care Federation and Massachusetts Aging Services Coalition. In developing its plan, the task force shall identify and compile pertinent information, including, but not limited to the following:

- (1) the age of each nursing facility, specifying the date of initial licensure approved by the department of public health;

- (2) the adequacy of the current Medicaid nursing facility capital reimbursement method to ensure that necessary physical plant maintenance is executed to ensure that residents receive treatment in facilities that meet the licensure requirements of the department of public health, and examine the capital reimbursement method's effect on nursing facility replacement and renovation projects which have received department of public health determination of need approval;

- (3) the number of nursing facility replacement and renovation projects which have received department of public health determination of need approval since 1995;

- (4) the total capital expenditure approved by the department for each nursing facility replacement and renovation project in each year and in each city or town;

- (5) whether each approved project constitutes total replacement or renovation;

- (6) the construction status of each approved project as of December 1, 2003; and

- (7) the supply and demand projections of nursing facility utilization by geographic region, with particular attention given to urban areas.

The task force shall submit its plan to the general court by April 1, 2004. The plan shall include recommendations for regulatory and statutory changes needed in order to implement the plan." Question comes on passing said section, notwithstanding said objections [Rogers-Kujawski.]

[Amended by inserting after the enacting clause the following section:

"SECTION 1. Chapter 207 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out sections 38 and 39, as appearing in the 2002 Official Edition and inserting in place thereof the following 2 sections:-

Section 38. A marriage may be solemnized in any place in the commonwealth by a resident of the commonwealth who is so authorized by a church or religious organization, or by a city or town clerk or assistant city or town clerk, a clerk or assistant clerk of a court or a clerk or assistant clerk of the senate or house of representatives or by a justice of the peace if he has been so designated and has received a certificate of designation under section 39.

Section 39. The governor may, in his discretion, designate a justice of the peace in each town and such further number, not exceeding 1 for every 5,000 inhabitants of a city or town, as he considers expedient, to solemnize marriages, and may for a cause at any time revoke such designation.

The state secretary may authorize, subject to such conditions as he may determine, the solemnization of marriages by a justice of the peace designated by the governor.

zation of any specified marriage anywhere within the commonwealth by a non-resident clergy or non-clergy person desiring to solemnize a marriage. Upon application and payment of $25, the state secretary shall issue a certificate of authorization to the person requesting permission to solemnize the marriage. Within 10 days of the completion of such solemnization, such person shall file the certificate with the town or city clerk where the certificate issued under section 28 was obtained. If the marriage is cancelled, postponed or fails to occur for whatever reason, the certificate shall be returned to the state secretary. Such certificate shall expire upon completion of such solemnization.

If any person solemnizes a specified marriage anywhere within the commonwealth without having obtained a certificate under this section, the state secretary, upon application of such person, may issue a certificate validating such person's acts. Whoever violates the filing provision of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than $100."; by inserting after line 36 (as printed) the following sentence: "Failure to comply with clause 2 of subsection (b) shall not affect the validity of any instrument, or the record thereof."; in line 56 (as printed) by inserting after the word '(date)' the following: "- , but failure to include the expiration date shall not affect the validity of any instrument, or the record thereof".]
